3	Employees organize primarily to secure better wages and better working conditions.
4 5 6	We hold that they also organize in order to participate in the decisions which affect them at work. One of the fundamental tenets of Democratic government is the consent of the governed.
7 8	We are both employees and citizens.
9 10 11 12	Collective bargaining is the expression of citizenship in employment. Participation in the political life of the nation, state, local municipalities, and school district is but another aspect of that citizenship.
13 14 15 16	In the same way that we are organized to improve the terms and conditions of employment, we are equally dedicated to exert ourselves, individually and collectively, to fulfill the promise of American life. Amidst unparalleled abundance, there should not be want.
17 18 19 20	We are under a solemn obligation to represent the members of this organization forcefully and effectively in negotiations with the management of the Montesano School District and to conduct internal organizational affairs according to democratic standards.
<ul><li>21</li><li>22</li><li>23</li></ul>	THEREFORE, we, the classified school employees of Montesano School District, in meeting, adopt these bylaws this 8th day of November, 1974.

PREAMBLE

ARTICLE IV

1 2 3

The objectives and purposes of this organization are:

A. To carry out and assist on a local basis the objectives and purposes of the Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948.

B. To promote the organization of Public School Employees in the Montesano School District.

C. To promote the welfare of the membership and the classified employees of the Montesano School District, and to provide a voice in the determination of the terms and conditions of employment. We are committed to the process of collective bargaining as a desirable, democratic and effective method to achieve this.

D. To promote and provide systematic and effective employee management through collective bargaining; to confer and negotiate in good faith, with respect to grievance procedures and collective negotiations on personnel matters, including wages, hours and working conditions, vacations, holidays and other conditions of employment for the classified employees of Montesano School District.

E. Both as members and as citizens, we shall also employ available legislative and political action to establish adequate financial provisions for the improvement of public school education and equitable consideration for the classified school employees from the state legislators.

F. To establish better fellowship and understanding among classified school employees and to strive for their overall betterment through training, legislation and Association benefits.

ARTICLE V

MEMBERSHIP

 Section 1. Eligibility. Except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, any person without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, sex or political belief, who meets the requirements hereinafter listed shall be eligible for membership.

 A. All persons regularly employed as a classified school employee (as defined by the Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948) by or in Montesano School District, and who are members of the Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948, are eligible for membership in the organization.

Section 2. Rights.

1 2

- A. Members shall suffer no impairment of freedom of speech concerning the operations of this organization. Active discussions of organization affairs shall be encouraged and protected within this organization.
- B. Members shall have the right to fair and democratic elections at all levels of the organization. This includes due notice of nominations and elections, equal opportunities for competing candidates, and proper election procedures which shall be specifically set forth.
- C. Members shall have an equal right to run and hold office, except those persons set forth in RCW 41.56.030 Par. 2, a, b and c; and those employees classified either by state statute or appropriate state regulatory agencies as being a "supervisory employee" and/or holding any part of a job as supervisor.
- D. Members shall have the right to a full and clear accounting of all organizational funds. At all levels such accounting shall include, but not be limited to, periodical reports to the membership by appropriate fiscal officers or by independent auditors not otherwise connected with the organization, and a financial audit at least once a year which is made available to all members.
- E. Members shall have the right to full participation, through discussion and vote, in the decision making processes of the organization and to pertinent information needed for the exercises of this right.

Section 3. Dues.

- A. Application for membership shall be made on a standard application form provided by Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948. Such form includes a valid authorization for payroll deduction of dues.
- B. Dues to Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948 shall be as authorized by the current bylaws of Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948.
- C. Dues to Public School Employees of Montesano (local dues) shall be two dollars ($2.00) each month. Such dues shall be dedicated as follows: one dollar ($1.00) to a student scholarship fund and one dollar ($1.00) to the chapter's operating fund. At no time may monies be transferred from the scholarship fund to the chapter's operating fund. Persons who have signed a standard application form and are therefore paying through a system of regular payroll deduction shall, for as long as they continue to pay through such payroll deduction, be considered to be in good standing.
- D. When a member is unemployed for more than twenty (20) days in any calendar month and does not receive unemployment compensation or sick pay or other remuneration, they may be entitled to credit for dues for the period of unemployment, not to exceed six (6) months in any calendar year.

- E. Membership dues are not refundable except where an error resulting in an overpayment exists.
- F. Dues paid by the chapter president subject to Article XII, Section 12.1, of the Collective Bargaining Agreement will be reimbursed, up to $300.00 by the chapter from the chapter treasury. If two presidents hold office, the dues reimbursement will be shared equally to a maximum of $300.00 total. The chapter presidents' dues will be reimbursed annually in the month of July.

ARTICLE VI

MEETINGS

Section 1. General membership meetings of this organization shall be held at least two (2) times annually at a time and place to be fixed by the membership or the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the president, the Board of Trustees, or by petition filed with the president and signed by twenty percent (20%) of the members of this organization.

Section 3. The president shall provide at least five (5) days notification to all members of any meeting called. However, said five (5) days notice may be waived by the Board of Trustees provided that every reasonable effort is employed to notify the membership of the meeting.

Section 4. At any meeting of the membership of this organization, each member present shall be entitled to one (1) vote. A member must be present to vote - no proxy vote will be allowed. A minimum of five (5) members must be present to constitute a quorum before any organization business may be transacted.

ARTICLE VII

MANAGEMENT

Section 1. The business and property of this organization shall be managed by a Board of Trustees, except when the meetings of the organization are in session. All matters affecting the purposes, aims and means of accomplishing the purposes of this organization, not specifically provided for in these bylaws or by action of the members at a regular or special meeting shall be decided by the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. The Board of Trustees shall be composed of the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and/or co-officers and a unit representative elected by the unit from each of the following classifications of employees of the school district if represented by the local Public School Employees organization. Unit representatives shall be elected at the last unit meeting of the curriculum school year.

Classifications: 1. Transportation

- 2. Food Service
- 3. Custodial
- 4. Maintenance
- 5. Paraeducators (One representative from each school site, however, for board of trustees voting purposes, they shall have only one vote).
- 6. Mechanic
- 7. Other Units Requesting Further Affiliation

Section 3. The term of office of the trustees of this organization shall be for a period of one (1) year beginning on September 1. The month of August will be used to transition new trustees.

Section 4. The Board of Trustees shall hold such meetings as the president or the board shall deem necessary for the competent management of affairs of the organization.

Section 5. Each member of the Board of Trustees shall possess one (1) vote in matters coming before the board. All voting at meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be by each member present in person, and voting by proxy shall not be allowed. A majority of the members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6. Any trustee may be removed from office by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the membership at any regular or special meeting of the membership of the organization. Notice of the proposed removal of the trustee must be given to the trustee five (5) days prior to the date of the meeting at which the removal is to be voted upon. Such notice to the trustee must state the cause for the proposed removal.

Section 7. Unexcused absences from two (2) consecutive meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be due cause for removal of the trustee by the Board of Trustees. Removal of a board member because of excessive absenteeism shall not require the 2/3 vote of membership.

Section 8. Any vacancies occurring on the Board of Trustees by reason of death, resignation or removal shall be filled according to the following procedures. In the event that such trustee is an officer, such selection shall be by the membership at a chapter meeting. All other trustees' vacancies shall be filled by the classification of which they are representing. Such replacement trustee shall serve during the unexpired term of the trustee whose position has become vacant.

ARTICLE VIII

OFFICERS, NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. The officers of this organization shall be president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer. Any of these positions may consist of two (2) officers. All officers shall be elected for a term of one (1) year beginning September 1. They shall be elected at either the May or June chapter meeting of the curriculum school year. The month of August will be used to transition new officers.

Section 2. Nominations may be made by the nominating committee, but whether or not such nominating committee is used, nominations shall be permitted from the floor at the meeting held to elect officers.

Section 3. To be eligible for office, a member must be in good standing for one (1) year immediately preceding the election, except in the initial election held in this organization, and must qualify under the provisions of Article V, Section 2-C.

Section 4. Officers shall be elected by secret ballot vote, and the balloting shall be so conducted as to afford all members a reasonable opportunity to vote. At least ten (10) days advance notice shall be given the membership prior to the holding of the election.

Section 5. Every officer and trustee shall, upon assuming office, subscribe to the obligation of an officer and trustee, contained in these bylaws.

ARTICLE IX

DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. President. The president or co-presidents shall preside at all meetings of the organization and of the Board of Trustees. The president(s) shall supervise all activities of the organization; execute all instruments in its behalf; counter-sign all checks drawn against the funds of the organization; appoint all special committees of the organization subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees; report periodically to the membership regarding the progress and standing of the organization in regard to the president's official acts; perform all other duties as prescribed in the bylaws and perform such other duties usually inherent in such office.

Section 2. Vice President. The vice president shall act for the president in the president's absence and perform such other acts as the president or Board of Trustees may direct. The vice president may be authorized, by the Board of Trustees, to act as a co-signer of checks drawn on the funds of the organization in place of or in addition to either the president or treasurer.

Section 3. Secretary. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep all records of the organization, the Board of Trustees, and to perform such other acts as the president and Board of Trustees may direct.

Section 4. Treasurer. The treasurer shall receive and be accountable for all funds and monies belonging to the organization; pay all obligations incurred by the organization in payment as authorized by the Board of Trustees; maintain bank accounts and depositories designated by the Board of Trustees; and such money shall be withdrawn only by checks signed by the president or vice president, and the treasurer; and shall render periodical financial reports as required by the Board of Trustees or by the membership; and keep an accurate record of receipts and disbursements; and shall act as custodian of all properties of the organization.

A. Service Recognition and Award. The chapter will award employees who have been employed by the Montesano School District for ten (10) to fourteen (14) years with a fifty dollar ($50.00) retirement award and fifteen (15) plus years with a one hundred dollar ($100.00) retirement award.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. This organization shall be at all times subject to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948.

Section 2. Except to the extent specified in the bylaws, no officer of this organization shall have the power to act as agent for, or otherwise bind this organization in any way whatsoever. No member or group of members or any other person or persons shall have the power to act on behalf of or otherwise bind the organization except to the extent specifically authorized in writing by the president or Board of Trustees of the organization.

Section 3. The latest edition of Robert's Rules Of Order shall be the guide in all cases in which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the constitution, bylaws and special rules of this organization or of the Public School Employees of Washington / SEIU 1948.

Section 4. Chapter Budget. At the first chapter meeting of each school year, the Board of Trustees shall present for chapter approval a budget of planned revenue and expenses for the school year.

ARTICLE XI

COMMITTEES AND DELEGATES

Section 1. Grievance Committee. A Grievance Committee shall be composed of the vice president and the unit representatives serving on the Board of Trustees. The committee shall be responsible for determining if the chapter shall support a grievance as described in the collective bargaining agreement. The committee shall elect its chair. The quorum shall be a majority of the members of the committee.

Section 2. Negotiating Committee. A Negotiating Committee shall be responsible for effectively and forcefully representing the best interest of the entire Association. It shall be authorized to reach tentative agreement with the District on membership concerns (e.g., letters of agreement, memorandums of understanding, and a new collective bargaining agreement).

This committee shall have the following members:

1. The president(s) who shall continue to serve to completion of a negotiation as a voting member notwithstanding a different president(s) may have been elected.

2. A unit representative elected by each classification who shall be responsible for negotiating for that school year, or, if negotiations continue beyond the year, to completion of the issue being negotiated.

Special rules of the Committee are:

1 2

- 1. A chairperson shall be elected by the Committee.
- 2. Three unexcused consecutive absences constitute automatic removal from the committee.
  - Section 3. Audit Committee. An Audit Committee shall be selected by the Board of Trustees.
  - Section 4. Other Or Special Committees. The Board of Trustees shall designate such special committees as they determine necessary in the carrying out of the objectives and purposes of this organization.
  - Section 5. Convention Delegates. Delegates shall be elected by the membership. Delegates shall pay their own expenses including registration, lodging, and gas. Delegates will submit receipts for reimbursable expenses and will be reimbursed for said expenses within sixty (60) days following convention.
  - Section 6. Nominating Committee. A Nominating Committee may be appointed by the Board of Trustees or elected to make nominations.
  - Section 7. Scholarship Committee. A scholarship committee shall have the responsibility to determine how many scholarships will be awarded and who will receive the scholarships. The maximum amount of scholarships to be awarded in any year shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

In deciding who shall receive the scholarship(s) the committee shall observe the following rules:

- 1. Students of PSE members shall receive priority recognition.
- 2. No scholarship shall be awarded to a student already awarded a full scholarship.
- 3. Should an applicant be a relation of a committee member, such member shall declare their conflict of interest and shall not participate in the committee's discussion or vote on the committee recommendation involving this applicant.

Additional rules of the committee are:

- 1. It shall be composed of a minimum of three (3) members.
- 2. A chairperson shall be elected by the committee.
- 3. The quorum shall be a majority of the members of the committee.
