Employees who do not believe that they have enough time to complete all assigned tasks shall inform their supervisor in writing. The supervisor shall provide a written response which shall include a priority list.

1 Section 6.2.

2 Each employee shall be assigned to a regular shift and workweek, which shall not be changed in its

2 Paid Family and Medical Leave is a statewide insurance program that is mandated by the State and
3 funded by premiums paid by both employees and employers. Employee contributions as required are
4 deducted monthly from the employee’s pay. This program allows eligible employees to take up to 12
5 weeks, as needed and eligible, when they welcome a new child into their family, are struck by a
6 serious illness or injury, need to take care of an ill or ailing relative, and for certain military connected
7 events. If employees experience multiple events in a given year, they may be eligible to receive up to 8 16 weeks, or up to 18 weeks if the employee experiences a serious health condition with a pregnancy.

9
10 For purposes of PFML, an employee may access their accrued sick leave in half-day increments per 11 day of leave as a supplemental benefit for state PFML benefits.

12
13 An employee becomes eligible once they have worked 820 hours for a Washington-based employer
14 during the previous year. The benefit cannot be taken without a qualifying event. Leave events can be 36 from reporting the incident to a law enforcement agency).

37
38 B. Whenever an employee is absent from employment and unable to perform his or her duties as a
39 result of personal injuries sustained due to an assault as defined in A above, the employee will be paid

ARTICLE VIII

VACANCIES, TRANSFER, PROMOTION AND LAYOFF PROCEDURES

Section 8.1.

The employee with the greatest seniority shall have preferential rights regarding promotions, assignment to new or open positions, reduction of hours not constituting a layoff, layoffs, and recall from layoff; unless a junior employee possesses significantly greater ability and performance relevant to the personnel decision which is at issue.

Section 8.2.

Seniority shall be the time worked as a regular employee in the bargaining unit.

Section 8.3.

The District agrees to post notice (to include an informative description of the job duties and required qualifications) of all secretarial and clerical vacancies and new positions occurring during the school year at least one week prior to advertising such vacancies to the general public. The District shall email to employee work email and/or home email classified job postings at the request of the employee.

Section 8.4.

The employee with the earliest hire date shall have preferential rights regarding filling of open job assignments, promotions, and layoffs when ability and performance are equal with those individuals junior to him/her. If the District determines that seniority rights should not govern because a junior employee or non-employee applicant possesses ability and performance greater than a senior employee or employees, upon written request of the employee the District shall set forth in writing, to the employee or senior employees and the Union President, its reasons why the senior employee or employees have been bypassed.

Section 8.5.

Involuntary reassignments shall not be made if they would cause the employee to work fewer hours.

Section 8.6.

The right to make assignments and reassignments and to transfer employees, provided the employee is qualified for the position, shall remain the right of the District, if the employees involved agree. The District shall provide the Union with ten (10) working days written notice before any assignment, reassignment or transfer pursuant to this section takes effect.

Section 8.6.1.

No involuntary transfers shall be made if there is a qualified willing applicant available to fill said position. The District will inform all employees within the bargaining unit in writing of the need for transfer and provide a description of the position to be filled. Thereafter, employees shall have five (5) days to give notice of a desire to be voluntarily transferred. If there is more than one volunteer, the most senior, qualified employee will be transferred. The District may fill the position temporarily in the interim period.

1 Section 8.6.2.

2 The District’s obligation to post new and open positions and to comply with the seniority
3 bypass provisions herein shall take precedence over the District’s right to make assignments,
4 reassignments and transfers pursuant to Sections 8.5, 8.6 and 8.6.1.

5
6 Section 8.7.

7 The District may not lay off senior employees before junior employees unless the junior employee
8 possesses substantially greater ability and performance pursuant to Section 8.4. of the Agreement.
9 Should a seniority bypass occur, the District must inform the Union President of the name, position
10 and building of the bypassed employee. Senior employees, displaced as a result of a layoff, may bump
11 the least senior employee holding a position that is substantially equivalent to the position held at the 12 time of layoff, starting first within their building/worksite and outside their building if necessary.
13 Employees may not bump into a higher pay range than that held at the time layoff occurred; provided,
14 however, displaced employees may apply for all open positions that may be available at the time. In 15 the event of layoff, employees so affected are to be placed on a re-employment list maintained by the 16 District according to layoff ranking. Such employees are to have priority in filling an opening in any 17 classification held prior to layoff. Names shall remain on the re-employment list for two (2) years.
18

19 Section 8.8.

20 Employees on layoff status shall file their addresses in writing with the personnel office of the District
21 and shall thereafter promptly advise the District in writing of any change of address.
22

23 Section 8.9.

24 An employee shall forfeit rights to re-employment as provided in Section 8.7 if the employee does not
25 comply with the requirements of Section 8.8, or if the employee does not respond to the offer of 26 re-employment within fifteen (15) days after actual receipt.
27

28 Section 8.10.

29 An employee on layoff status who rejects an offer of re-employment forfeits seniority and all other
30 accrued benefits; provided, that such employee is offered a position substantially similar to that held
31 prior to layoff.

42 which shall include a general description of the duties to be performed and the number of hours per
43 day to be worked. Such duties and hours of work shall not be altered during any one school year so as

Your Rights as a Worker

► It's the law!

Employers must post this notice where employees can read it.

Wage and Overtime Laws

Workers must be paid the Washington minimum wage

- Most workers who are 16 years of age or older must be paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked. See www.Lni.wa.gov/MinWage.
- Workers who are 14 or 15 may be paid 85% of the minimum wage.
- Tips cannot be counted as part of the minimum wage. Employers must pay all tips to employees.

Overtime pay is due when working more than 40 hours

Most workers must be paid one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in a fixed seven-day workweek. Agricultural workers are generally exempt from overtime.

Workers Need Meal and Rest Breaks

Meal period

Most workers are entitled to a 30-minute unpaid meal period if working more than five hours in a day. If you must remain on duty during your meal period, you must be paid for the 30 minutes. Agricultural workers are entitled to a second 30-minute unpaid meal period if they work more than 11 hours in a day.

Breaks

- Most workers are entitled to a 10-minute paid rest break for each four hours worked and must not work more than three hours without a break.
- Agricultural workers must have a 10-minute paid rest break within each four-hour period of work.
- If you are under 18, see "Teen Corner" at right.

Pay Requirements

Regular Payday

Workers must be paid at least once a month on a regularly scheduled payday. Your employer must give you a pay statement showing the number of hours worked, rate of pay, number of piece work units (if piece work), gross pay, the pay period and all deductions taken.

For more information regarding authorized deductions, go to www.Lni.wa.gov/workers-rights/wages/getting-paid and click on "Paycheck deductions."

Equal Pay and Opportunities Act

Under this law, your employer is prohibited from providing unequal pay or career advancement opportunities based on gender. You also have the right to disclose, compare, or discuss your wages or the wages of other employees. Your employer cannot take any adverse action against you for discussing wages, filing a complaint, or exercising other protected rights under the Equal Pay and Opportunities Act. Employers also are prohibited from requesting a job applicant's wage or salary history, except under certain circumstances, and cannot require an applicant's wage or salary history meet certain criteria. Job applicants also have the right to certain salary information if the employer has 15 or more employees. For more information or to file a complaint, go to www.Lni.wa.gov/EqualPay.

Teen Corner — Information for Workers Ages 14–17

- The minimum age for work is generally 14, with different rules for ages 14–15 and ages 16–17.
- Employers must have a minor work permit to employ teens. This requirement applies to family members except on family farms. Teens do not need a work permit.
- Teens are required to have authorization forms signed before they begin working. For summer employment, parents must sign the Parent Authorization for Summer Work form. If you work during the school year, a parent and a school official must sign the Parent/School Authorization form.
- Many jobs are not allowed for anyone under 18 because they are not safe.
- Work hours are limited for teens, with more restrictions on work hours during school weeks.

Meal and rest breaks for teens

- In agricultural work, teens of any age get a meal period of 30 minutes if working more than five hours, and a 10-minute paid break for each four hours worked.
- In all other industries, teens who are 16 or 17 must have a 30-minute meal period if working more than five hours, and a 10-minute paid break for each four hours worked. They must have the rest break at least every three hours.
- Teens who are 14 or 15 must have a 30-minute meal period no later than the end of the fourth hour, and a 10-minute paid break for every two hours worked.

To find out more about teens in the workplace: www.Lni.wa.gov/TeenWorkers, 1-866-219-7321, TeenSafety@Lni.wa.gov.

Leave Laws

Paid sick leave

Most workers earn a minimum of one hour of paid sick leave for every 40 hours worked. This leave may be used beginning on the 90th calendar day of employment. Employers must provide employees with a statement that includes their accrued, used and available hours of this leave at least once per month. This information may be provided on your regular pay statement or as a separate notification. Workers must be allowed to carry over a minimum of 40 hours of any unused paid sick leave to the following year. For details on authorized use, accrual details, and eligibility, see www.Lni.wa.gov/SickLeave.

Washington Family Care Act: Use of paid leave to care for sick family

Employees are entitled to use their choice of any employer provided paid leave (sick, vacation, certain short-term disability plans, or other paid time off) to care for:

- A child with a health condition requiring treatment or supervision;
- A spouse, parent, parent-in-law, or grandparent with a serious health condition or an emergency health condition; and
- Children 18 years and older with disabilities that make them incapable of self-care.

Leave for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking

Victims and their family members are allowed to take reasonable leave from work for legal or law enforcement assistance, medical treatment, counseling, relocation, meetings with their crime victim advocate, or to protect their safety. Employers are also required to provide reasonable safety accommodations to victims. For more information, see www.Lni.wa.gov/DVLeave.

Leave for military spouses during deployment

Spouses or registered domestic partners of military personnel who receive notice to deploy or who are on leave from deployment during times of military conflict may take a total of 15 days unpaid leave per deployment.

Your employer may not fire or retaliate against you for exercising your rights or filing a complaint related to minimum wage, overtime, paid sick leave or protected leave.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT

THE PURPOSE OF THIS LETTER OF AGREEMENT IS TO SET FORTH THE FOLLOWING AGREEMENT(S) BETWEEN PUBLIC SCHOOL EMPLOYEES OF SEQUIM AND THE SEQUIM SCHOOL DISTRICT. THIS AGREEMENT IS ENTERED INTO PURSUANT TO ARTICLE XVI SECTION 16.3 OF THE CURRENT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT.

The parties agree as follows:

1. Section 16.1 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 16.1.

The term of this Agreement shall be September 1, 2024 to August 31, 2026.

2. Section 8.7 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 8.7.

The District may not lay off senior employees before junior employees unless the junior employee possesses substantially greater ability and performance pursuant to Section 8.4. of the Agreement. Should a seniority bypass occur, the District must inform the Union President of the name, position and building of the bypassed employee. Senior employees, displaced as a result of a layoff, may bump the least senior employee holding a position that is substantially equivalent to the position held at the time of layoff. Employees may not bump into a higher pay range than that held at the time layoff occurred; provided, however, displaced employees may apply for all open positions that may be available at the time. In the event of layoff, employees so affected are to be placed on a re-employment list maintained by the District according to layoff ranking. Such employees are to have priority in filling an opening in any classification held prior to layoff. Names shall remain on the re-employment list for two (2) years.

3. Section 13.4.1 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 13.4.1.

Schedule A for the 2024-25 fiscal year shall be attached hereto. (The 2023-24 Schedule A shall be increased by the State IPD of 3.7% for the 2024-25 fiscal year). The District and Union agree to reopen Schedule A to negotiate wages for the 2025-26 fiscal year.

4. To address the need for increased flexibility and coverage of extra hours in the 2024-25 work year:

- Each bargaining unit position will have access to sixteen (16) hours of additional work time over the course of the 2024-25 work year.
- These hours shall be scheduled with supervisor approval, with an effort to avoid using them at times that would put the employee into overtime/compensatory time when possible.
- Employees have the option to allocate their sixteen (16) hours to a co-worker within the unit, pending approval from each supervisor.
- This provision may be extended for an additional year with the approval of both parties when the contract is reopened for compensation for 2025-2026.

- These hours are not the maximum extra hours that the District may allocate on the request of employees who have added workload.

This Letter of Agreement shall be effective September 1, 2024, shall remain in effect until August 31, 2026 and shall be attached to the current Collective Bargaining Agreement.
